Prepare to embark on an extraordinary literary journey with Caroline Scott's captivating novel, 'The Visitors.' This enthralling tale transports readers through the labyrinth of time, weaving together the threads of family secrets and the unbreakable bonds of love.

At the heart of the story lies Eleanor Hamilton, a woman haunted by the disappearance of her beloved father during a mysterious expedition. Driven by unyielding determination, she embarks on a perilous quest to uncover the truth behind his fate.

As Eleanor delves deeper into her investigation, she is drawn into a vortex of time, where past and present intertwine. She encounters enigmatic visitors from a distant era, each carrying fragments of the puzzle that holds the key to her father's whereabouts.

Among these enigmatic figures is Edward, a dashing young man from the Victorian era. With his charm and unwavering devotion, he captivates Eleanor's heart. However, their burgeoning romance is threatened by the swirling currents of time.

As Eleanor navigates the treacherous terrain of the past, she uncovers a tangled web of family secrets. She discovers long-forgotten letters, hidden diaries, and ancient artifacts that shed light on the true nature of her lineage.

With each revelation comes a deeper understanding of her father's enigmatic disappearance. Eleanor learns of his secret involvement in a clandestine society dedicated to preserving the fabric of time.

As the stakes rise, Eleanor finds herself torn between her love for Edward and her unwavering determination to solve the mystery of her father's fate. She must confront her own fears, confront the forces that seek to manipulate time, and unravel the truth that has been hidden for far too long.

'The Visitors' is a masterfully crafted novel that weaves together elements of historical fiction, adventure, suspense, and mystery. Caroline Scott's vivid prose transports readers to a world beyond imagination, where the boundaries of time blur and the past and present collide.
