It was a starless night, the city pulsating with the rhythm of neon lights, when fate orchestrated an unexpected encounter. Amidst the hustle and bustle of a crowded street, a young woman named Anya caught the attention of a notorious thug known as "Razor." With his rugged charm and an air of danger, Razor exuded an undeniable magnetism.

As their gazes intertwined, time seemed to stand still. Anya, a free spirit with a gentle heart, was drawn to Razor's enigmatic aura. One fateful evening, as they lay entwined in each other's arms, Razor made a bold declaration.

"Anya," he whispered hoarsely, "I want to etch your name on my heart, so that the world knows you are mine." With a trembling hand, he reached for a pocketknife and, without hesitation, carved her name into the skin of his chest. Anya gasped in both shock and awe.
